Summer Party Invitation

Can you make this invitation sound more formal?

Remember to include more formal vocabulary and structures – you could possibly use the subjunctive form.

Hi mate,

We're having a get together for my birthday. There will be a big tent in our garden where we can eat yummy snacks. We'll play some fun outdoor games like croquet! If you feel like coming, it'd be great to see you there. Please come on Sunday 10th at 12pm for a few hours. Let me know if you fancy it!

See ya, your bestie.

Please return this slip so I know if you're coming.

I'll be there!

I'm busy!

Summer Synonym Scramble

Oh no! It's the family trip to the seaside and everyone's swimsuits are muddled up. Can you find the matching synonyms so that everyone has matching swimsuits?

Summer Synonym Scramble

Have a go at using some of these words in summer sentences:

The Way Through the Woods

by Rudyard Kipling

Read this poem 'The Way through the Woods' and then answer the following questions:

They shut the road through the woods
Seventy years ago.
Weather and rain have undone it again,
And now you would never know
There was once a road through the woods
Before they planted the trees.
It is underneath the coppice and heath,
And the thin anemones.
Only the keeper sees
That, where the ring-dove broods,
And the badgers roll at ease,
There was once a road through the woods.

Yet, if you enter the woods
Of a summer evening late,
When the night-air cools on the trout-ringed pools
Where the otter whistles his mate,
(They fear not men in the woods,
Because they see so few.)
You will hear the beat of a horse's feet,
And the swish of a skirt in the dew,
Steadily cantering through
The misty solitudes,
As though they perfectly knew
The old lost road through the woods.
But there is no road through the woods.

The Way Through the Woods

1. Which season is this poem set in? Circle one.

spring

summer

autumn

winter

2. Why are you no longer able to see the road through the woods?

3. 'Steadily cantering through'

Tick the word closest in meaning to 'steadily'.

annually

gradually

quickly

noisily

4. 'You will hear the beat of a horses feet

And the swish of a skirt in the dew.....

.....But there is no road through the woods.'

What do you think that the poet is describing in the last part of the second verse?

Ice-cream Match-Up!

Can you draw lines to match each part of the compound adjectives? Remember that they need a hyphen to avoid ambiguity.

Could you use some of the words in summer themed sentences?

cocoa		Ivory Coast/Indo- nesia/Ghana	Warm countries close to the Equator, reliable year round rainfall.
honey		China/Turkey/ India	Honey bees have adapted to conditions all over the world.
sugar		Brazil/India/ China	Tropical and subtropical climates. Lengthy rainy seasons.
mangoes		India/China/ Thailand	Tropical lowlands near the Equator. Long dry season, short wet season.

The People

Meet some of the farmers who produce the cocoa that makes your chocolate. They belong to a cooperative, which means they pool or gather their resources and work together.

Many cocoa farmers are from Ghana in West Africa.

Around 65,000 farmers belong to the Kuapa Kokoo cooperative. Together, they grow, farm and harvest cocoa before selling to the Fairtrade organisation for a guaranteed fair price. They even own shares in Fairtrade chocolate companies, giving them greater control over their own futures. They are proud of their work. The motto of Kuapa Kokoo is 'Pa Pa Paa', which means 'best of the best'.

Chocolate ice-cream is the second most favourite ice-cream in the world at 9% (after vanilla 29%)

Fairtrade Brownies

Ingredients

185g unsalted butter

185g best dark Fairtrade chocolate

85g plain flour

40g Fairtrade cocoa powder

50g Fairtrade white chocolate

50g Fairtrade milk chocolate

3 large eggs

275g Fairtrade golden caster sugar

Method

1. Turn the oven on to fan 160C/conventional 180C/gas.
2. Cut the butter into small cubes, tip into a medium heatproof bowl and add the dark chocolate broken into chunks. Place the bowl over a saucepan of simmering water (making sure the bowl doesn't touch the water) until the butter and chocolate have melted, stirring occasionally to mix them. Remove the bowl from the pan and leave the melted mixture to cool to room temperature.
3. Using a shallow 20cm square tin, cut out a square of non-stick baking parchment to line the base.
4. Sieve the flour and cocoa powder into another medium bowl.
5. Chop or bash the white chocolate and the milk chocolate into rough squares- these will form chunks in your finished brownies.
6. Break the eggs into a large bowl and add the golden caster sugar. Whisk the eggs and sugar together until they look thick and creamy, like a milk shake. This can take as long as 10 minutes even with a powerful whisk so be patient. It is ready when the mixture becomes really pale and there is about twice as much of it as there was to start with.
7. Pour the cooled chocolate mixture over the eggy mousse, then gently fold together with a rubber spatula. You are trying to combine the mixtures here without knocking out the air so be really gentle and slow.

Fairtrade Brownies

8. Gently tap out your sieved cocoa and flour on to the top of the egg and chocolate mix and fold it in with the spatula working from bottom to top. Although the mixture will seem dry at first, as you patiently continue to fold, it will become more moist and fudgy. Continue until all the powder has gone then stir in the white and milk chocolate chunks until they're evenly spread throughout the mix.
9. Pour the mixture into the prepared tin and use your spatula to scrape out every last drop. Spread evenly into the corners. Bake in the oven for 25 minutes. After 25 minutes, take the tray out and wobble it. If the brownies wobble too, they may need another 5 minutes.
10. Wait until the brownies are completely cool to slice in whichever way you like.
11. Serve and enjoy the taste of Fairtrade!

1. What does 'Fairtrade' mean?

2. Circle the conditions that cocoa needs to grow.

warm and wet warm and dry cold and wet cold and dry

3. Is chocolate the favourite flavour of ice-cream in the world? Yes / No

Explain how you know.

4. What punctuation is used in the chocolate brownies recipe? How does this help the reader?

Think and Write: Kermit's travels
